National Women's History Month

Celebrating 35 Years of Writing Women Back into History are overdue. If a book is lost and/or damaged, the cost of the book must be paid.

E-book Survey

During the month of January, students in 3rd and 4th grade were asked to take a survey in regard to having access to ebooks in our collection.

75% of students would like to read an e-book on a device.

54% like both e-books and having a hard copy to read.

Kolter Library is considering adding ebooks to our collection.

Check out the bulletin board by the library portraying seven (7) 2015 National Women's History Month Honorees who were chosen for their pioneering leadership and accomplishments. Their achievements, individually and collectively, have been essential in weaving the amazing and courageous stories of women's lives into the colorful fabric of our nation's history.

Quote of the Month

"You're never too old, too wacky, too wild, to pick up a book and read to a child". Dr. Seuss

Thought for the month:

Before you speak: THINK

T – is it true?

H – is it helpful?

I – is it inspiring?

N – is it necessary?

K – is it kind (Found in retired teacher, April Hiller's classroom.)

The Library still has quite a number of overdue books. A second notice is going home in Tuesday's folders. Please return all books that
